

Notice of NSPII Award Nominations

Nominations for the following awards are being accepted. The deadline for submission of nominations is the end of August.

The following awards are available:

F. Lee Brininger Award

NSPII annually recognizes a person or person who have made an outstanding contribution in the fight against insurance fraud. Prior to 1993, the award was named the Investigator of the Year. The award was renamed to honor F. Lee Brininger, a founding member, past President, and Executive Secretary from 1985-1993. The award is to go an Investigator who "demonstrated outstanding skill, dedication and honesty in fighting the crime of insurance fraud."

Public Service Award

The Public Service Award is to be given to a member of the public sector for "professionalism, dedication, and accomplishment in the fight against fraudulent insurance claims and/or arson."

Outstanding Achievement Award

The Outstanding Achievement Award is to be given to a Society member for "outstanding achievement in the fight against fraudulent insurance claims."

Nominations should be submitted on the appropriate Award Nomination form.
